

Author Natasha Dean is coming to the
ACS Library Think Tank
May 24
Sign up now for her fabulous
writing workshops!

About Natasha Deen:

I write for kids and teens, and I love mixing mystery, action, and creepy with a whole lot of humour. My books have been described as “gripping” (School Library Connection), “engaging” (CM Magazine) and “feel good” (VOYA).
I LOVE USING ALL THE TIMES I FELT DIFFERENT TO SHOW THAT AT HEART, WE’RE ALL THE SAME.

Permission from Parents

I give _____ permission to attend the selected writing workshops on May 24. I understand that my child will notify teachers and will plan to catch up on any missed work.

Name of Parent:

Signature:

Choose a workshop

Pick one, two or all four

Period One:	PLOTTING FOR THE BUSY WRITER. Getting started. Planning, plotting and putting it on the page.
Period Two:	I’VE LIVED A THOUSAND LIVES. Characters. Creating them and making them talk
Period 3bc:	THE INVISIBLE CHARACTER How setting and description are characters in your story.
Period Four:	EASY AS ONE, TWO, HERE’S WHAT YOU DO: How to get published, the dos and don’ts.	